

DRDO, RRU to tie up for boosting defence, internal security

New Delhi: Defence Research and Development Organisation and Rashtriya Raksha University (RRU) on Monday signed a memorandum of understanding to foster collaboration in areas of research, education, training and technology support for boosting defence and internal secu-

ple, including then state Congress chief Nand Kumar

The event was held at the Khokhara Police Ground in Janjigar-Chamunda district. The gathering was in charge of the BJP for Chhattisgarh during the 2013 Jharkhand Valmiki natak and closely witnessed developments

"Nearly 2,500 Naxalites have surrendered in the last two years, 1,853 have been arrested, and top leaders such as Huidan and K. K. Reddy are now in jail," he said.

Nadga added that Congress governments had maintained friendship and understanding with Maoists, whereas the BJP government had broken the leadership of PM Modi launched a decisive strike to end the menace. ■

Gangster respond to a plea by the Enforcement Directorate challenging the order of the trial court that refused to take cognisance of its chargesheet against them in the National Herald case.

Justice Ravindra Duda issued notice to the Gandhis and others on the main petition as well as on the ED application seeking stay on the Dec 16 trial court order, which held that cognisance of the agency's complaint in the case was "improper under law" as it was not founded on an FIR.

The high court listed the matter for further hearing on Mar 8, 2006.

Besides the Gandhis, the ED has issued notices to Simran Dubey, Sam Pitroda, Young Indian, Dotex Merchandise Pvt Ltd and Sumil Bhandari on the ED plea.

While Solicitor General Tushar Mehra represented the ED in the case, Advocate Abhinav Singhania and R S Chandra represented the Gandhis. In its order, the trial court had said that an investigation and the consequent filing of a charge sheet by the

LAP in the Lok Sabha Rahul Gandhi with Congress MPs Sandhya and Priyanka Gandhi Varma

Mehra contended that the trial court with its view has gone "horribly wrong" and this would affect other cases also.

He said after investigation, the ED officials gave evidence and other material and, like the police files a report the ED files a prosecution complaint.

Singhani disputed the submission made on behalf of ED but said he will accept notice and file a reply in the matter. "I want to say something. I am not happy about the present position

Ayush minister Prataprao Jadhav

He said this at the Padmabhushan Dr P K Warrier Memorial Ayurveda Seminar event at the India International Centre, Delhi.

"Ministry of Ayush is continuously striving to ensure that all traditional systems of medicine, including Ayurveda, work together with modern medicine to play a significant role in realising the vision of a 'Swasth Bharat' (Healthy India)," the minister said in a virtual message.

The seminar was organised by Kerala-based Kottakkal Arya Vaidya Sala, a leading research centre in the history of the event that it held outside Kerala.

Arya Vaidya Sala is a healthcare centre providing services under the traditional systems, including research, and education, for over 125 years.

Jadhav said the contribution of Ayurveda to the health of the people of India is immense.

re services to the public have been convenient," the minister said. Dr P Varier, managing trustee and chief physician, Kottakkal Arya Vaidya Sala, said, "This is the first time in 83 years we have brought our Ayurveda Seminar out of Kerala to Delhi, the capital of India, to send a message of unity among the Ayurvedic fraternity north and south."

"North or south, Ayurveda is one. We must join hands for the growth, preservation and development of Ayurveda."

[illegible]

"The institution has been preserving and promoting ancient Ayurvedic knowledge while integrating it with modern scientific approaches, enhancing the global prestige of India's traditional medicine system."

"Its efforts in providing accessible, safe, and effective Ayurvedic healthcare have earned it a reputation as a leading institution in the field."
